Pleyel Ensemble

Heather Bills (Cello) and Harvey Davies (Piano) gave us “an enthralling and entertaining recital” on their 2012 visit. Heather’s 200 year old cello has been rebuilt several times as the modern cello developed. We are delighted to welcome them back for what promises to be a great night.

Intriplicate

Claire Fillhart (Flute), Sally Richardson (Oboe), and Claire Dunham (Piano) formed intriplicate in Manchester in 2001. They gave the first performance (and made the premier recording) of the long-lost Suite Bourgeoise by Sir Malcolm Arnold (lost just after it was composed in 1940). Their most recent commission Cheshire Phantasies, by the British composer David Lloyd-Mostyn, is based on the myths and legends of our county.

“Before They Become Famous VIII”

Pictured above, and on the front cover, are four students of the Junior Royal Northern College of Music during their March 2014 concert for us. For this season’s visit (their eighth concert for us), the young students will be different, but the performances promise to be just as exciting.

James Willshire

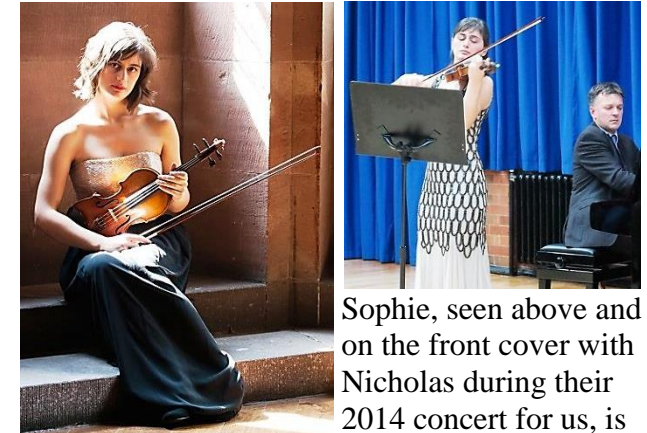

Pianist James Willshire has been heralded as a “fabulous technician” who has “torrential virtuosity”. Audiences across five continents have been enthralled by his “freshness and lucidity”, “clarity and sensitivity of touch” & his “bravura technique”.

Recent recordings of contemporary British piano music have received universal acclaim. His 2013 David Jennings CD was chosen as 1 of Music-Web International’s Recordings of the Year.

Sophie Rosa + Nicholas Oliver

Sophie, seen above and on the front cover with Nicholas during their 2014 concert for us, is a local girl from Cuddington. She plays a 1790 “Joseph Gagliano” violin. Their concert was so enthusiastically received (“a terrific evening of music making”) that, we quickly booked them again. Make sure you don’t miss out this year!
